Message from the Headteacher

Dear All,

A brief message to mark the first two days of term; there will be a fuller newsletter next Friday. This is a very short term and there is a large amount of curriculum to cover in the six weeks and one day of this half term and four weeks and four days before we break up on Maundy Thursday. We have been extremely busy in the first two days. Our theme for this half term is Courage and we have started by thinking about the challenges and opportunities of to embrace in the New Year.

Please keep checking the calendar for additional dates.

Parents' Evenings this term will be on;

Wednesday 6th March from 5pm-7.50pm.

Thursday 7th March from 4-6.30 pm

World Book Day will be celebrated on Friday 8th March. Mrs Quinn will provide more details about this year's theme next week.

Last term, we moved to two Worship times to the end of the school day on Thursdays and Fridays so that there was more scope for parents to attend. On Thursdays for the rest of the academic year, different classes will lead on the Worship theme or on our school vision and values. This half term, we start with Classes 4 on 18/01/2024 at 14:45, dates will follow for classes 10 and 7.

Wishing everyone a Happy New Year

Kind regards

Linda Wiskin
