Links with our Secondary Schools

Class 10 attended the dress rehearsal of Chelmsford County High School for Girls' production of 'Jesus Christ Superstar'.

They reported that they had "enjoyed the production", "It was very professional", " it made you think", "the music, playing and singing was spectacular!".

Some deep discussion followed. One banner that had drawn their attention was "Our oil under their sands". The maturity of their discussions was impressive.

Thanks to Mrs M Jeffery who helped us walk there and back.

This week, we have been delighted to host Rev Sue Finch, as our attached curate. This has been part of her training and a real blessing to us.

COMMUNITY NEWS

The school is sometimes offered musical instruments that are no longer required by other students. If you are in need for a particular instrument please contact the office, so that we can put you in touch with someone offering these items.

Currently there is a YAMAHA 91113 with stand available.

Library Consultants!

Pupils from The Cathedral School were thanked this week for their contribution to the design of the Library Summer Reading Scheme.

The children always enjoy the visits from Apryl Hammett who enthuses the children's use of the City Library. Their ideas and designs are gathered by Apryl. We were delighted to receive thanks from Cathy Garrington she said

"Thanks very much children of The Cathedral School – we will use your valuable ideas to buy a great reward for our aged 10 and over activity for the Summer Reading Challenge 2017."

ROMAN DAY 10th January 2017

Middle school kicked off their roman topic with a bang!

On Tuesday, 10 January 2017 the whole of middle school classes 6, 7 and 8 dressed up as Romans for the day - even the teachers dressed up. For homework we had been asked to make Shields so they were all different shapes and sizes someone big summer small.

We had a visitor who told us all about the Romans he explained about the eagle and that they would do anything to protect that standard then he told us about what to do if a spear hit your shield.

After that the classes took it in turns to go outside and learn how to do the tortoise with shields! The teachers had fun too as they got to throw beanbags at us! If you were not outside you were doing Roman numeral challenges and learning a Roman song with sign language.
