Dear Parents

What a wonderful day we have had with a vast and imaginative variety of Shakespearean characters. Well done children, parents and staff members!

Children knew about the plays they were in and there was the opportunity for in-depth work. How lovely to be told that if I was The Merchant of Venice, I was Antonio and Shylock was after my flesh.

Next week we are starting a new initiative. This is a special invitation to come to my office for part of Thursday afternoon bringing their work. On Thursday morning envelopes will be handed out and we will find out whose turn it is to come for tea. The fun is finding out when it's your turn to show off what you have been doing and come to tea. This is an addition to our Achievement ceremony and the fun is finding out whose turn it is this week! (Allergies will be noted).

Thank you to everyone who supported our Lent service yesterday led by Father Simon and with the Dean.

I wish everyone a happy weekend.
