Dear Parents

Thank you to everyone who attended or supported the “ Meet the Teacher” evening in anyway.

The school has an enthusiastic and dedicated staff and it is a pleasure to be in partnership with parents who enquire, support and commit. A particular thanks for your response to join the PTA core group and responding to the Trust.

Well done to our Year 3 and 4 Cross Country teams and the individual winners this week, please see the pictures and report attached.

Finally, I think the team that went to Kingswood with our year 5’s deserve commendation. On returning , their priority was to share the growth and wonderful moment they had observed in the children’s development.

They were back in station on Thursday, as were the pupils and especially deserve their weekend!

Best wishes

Linda Wiskin

Year 3 and 4 Cross-Country

Yesterday, Years 3 and 4 went to Chelmer Park to take part in the Cross-Country races. We sent a girls and a boys team for both year groups.

They all did very well and we are extremely pleased with the results. The year 4 boys just missed out on a top three place whilst the year 4 girls did a fantastic job and came 2nd with our very own Leah who came 3rd overall. Our year 3’s produced excellent results with our boys and girls both coming 1st overall. Ella came 2nd.

Mr Richardson accompanied the children and was very proud with all of their performances.

Well done to; Evie ,Annabelle, Eliana, Rosie, Ella, Leah, Lottie, Olive, Anya, Tabitha, Meghan, Jacob, Joshua, Adam, Freddie, Aidan, Alex, Nana, James and George.
