Dear Parents/ Carers

Thank you for all the kind and supportive responses from parents that we have received this week.

Generosity in words and edible form, have been appreciated by all staff especially when there were two evenings for your appointments with an inspection sandwiched in-between.

We do not expect to receive the Inspector's report until after Easter so I must ask you to await the report.

On Monday afternoon, The Bishop of Chelmsford will be visiting the school to formally open the new suite of rooms. By 3pm, the whole school will have gathered on the play-ground for the blessing of the memorial to Maya Krishnan-Bermudez.

Parents of pupils are, of course, welcome to view from the other side of the railings.

Finally, well done to our girls' and boys' football teams today for their great wins !!

I wish everyone a happy, restful and hopefully snowless weekend

Best wishes

L Wiskin

PTA News

There will be a second hand uniform sale after school on Thursday 22 March.

Our next cake sale will be the following week, on Thursday 29 March (the last day of term). Please could parents of children in years 1 and 2 supply the cakes (home-made or shop bought) for this sale?

We are hoping to create our own spinning wheel for the wheel of fortune game in time for Inflatables Day (14 July). Do any parents have any DIY or carpentry skills who might be able to help with this? If so please let a member of the PTA Committee know, or please email pta@cathedralschool.essex.school.uk

INFANT MUSIC FESTIVAL

On Tuesday morning, 30 of KS1's musical maestros made their way to Christ Church for the annual infant music festival. All the children were dressed to impress with bright yellow sunflowers on top of their heads. When they first arrived they met lots of different children from all over Chelmsford. They then had the difficult task of bringing all the performances together with only a short amount of time before the live show. They handled the job with a seriously good 'can do' attitude.

Next, the parents started flooding in and the festival got into full swing. Beautiful singing voices filled the room and excellent glockenspiel playing kept the whole thing running to a strong beat. The Cathedral School dancers were so good that after the rehearsal they were moved to the front for all to see. Narrators handled their lines like professionals; market sellers could have come straight from Camden Market and our wise owl had the crowd in stitches.

A great big thank you and well done to all the children and of course the fabulous Mrs Miller.
