SCHOOL CLUBS

All-staff run clubs finish next week. Agency clubs also finish unless arranged otherwise with the coach. Dodgeball and Rugby Tots will continue into the last week.

Dear Parents

We were contacted by the RAF with detailed information about next Tuesday's fly past and resources to help the children identify the planes. They start from Ipswich at 1.45pm and we will all be ready on the playground as they pass to the north and East of Chelmsford.

It remains hot and we continue to protect the children from the dangers of sun. With holiday safety in mind and after all the teaching reminders of the danger of water and sun, our prayers at the end of term always include the safe return of the children after the long holiday.

I attach several website links with thoughts and ideas that people may find useful.

Looking ahead to the new term, there are a couple of changes to announce.

We have been renovating the curriculum to ensure it is always of high quality and writing and mathematics skills are embedded in the foundation subjects. This demands a flexibility that cannot be met when KS2 are grouped for Mathematics and change classes. We are confident that the needs of all abilities can be met by the class teacher. The planning takes place in two year groups so the teacher on either side of a mixed class supports the mixed age class planning. This provides the opportunity for further intervention as the teacher is in control of the children's learning and can both revisit or arrange specific intervention with a flexibility the previous structure lacked. There has been a significant improvement in English, since we stopped changing classes in English, partially because it allowed us to write in class at suitable times and make better curriculum links strengthening our writing as will be evident from our improved writing results this year.

The formality of the structure often hampers the teacher putting the curriculum together in the most vibrant manner. Our new plans, which will be well advertised for each class in September both on the website, at "Meet the Teacher" and in the following Friday morning help sessions offered. Further information will be provided before the end of term about how else parents will be able to know more about their children's learning in the classroom.

Best wishes

L Wiskin
