Dear Parents

We have come to the end of a busy and fun-packed term when the children and staff have worked hard and we have been well-supported in our endeavours by the parents and Governors.

It is time for a well-deserved break ending with the most important Christian celebration of the year.

I wish everyone a happy and blessed Easter.

L Wiskin

This week we have been reducing, reusing and recycling plastic! Everyone has been involved in the 'House Plastic Competition', the team that collected the most plastic would win 100 house points! It was a very industrious event, Marconi and Hoffman were the official winners and Christy and Crompton came second place and they won 50 house points.

During waste week we have done different things to be eco-friendly and use less plastic: Class 7 have made videos about the impact of plastic, Foundation made wind chimes, middle school have had recycling workshops and the eco team have been on a litter-pick, to name but a few of the activities.

"It was fun to tackle plastic as a school." BY the ECO team

Thank you to everyone who entered in the reading competition for either cosy or extreme reading locations. The photographs were inspiring, dangerous, hilarious and made the decision incredibly tough to settle on.

The runners up were:

Charlotte C, Tilly P, Oscar P, Rachel B

The winner was

Evie B.

Each received a book related prize.

Well done!

FITNESS THREES

On Tuesday 26th March, six children from Year three went to Melbourne Athletics Stadium to take part in the first ever "Fitness Threes" event. The children enjoyed going round a series of running and jumping events, and they were encouraged to stop and check their pulse rates to see what impact the exercise was having on their bodies. Following a relay finale, we are proud to say our team came 14th. Well done to Oliver B, Oliver M, Harrison, Lily-Rose, Bella and Sophie W.

NETBALL TOURNAMENT

Congratulations to our A Team Netballers who have qualified for the District Finals on Tuesday 30th April.

In the qualifying tournament, they defeated St Michaels B and Westlands before losing to Perryfields A. The B team, who were made up predominantly of Year 5 pupils, gain valuable experience in matches in Pool 1 against Trinity Road, OLI, St Michaels A and Danbury Park. The squads were made up of Grace, Daisy, Eve, Alex, Max, Sidhart, William C, Meghan, William R, Evie, Millie, Leah, Kalista and Max.

TAG RUGBY MATCH

The Tag Rugby team took a short walk to Trinity Road Primary on Thursday to play a 30-minute match against the hosts. Both teams scored five tries in the first half but at the end the eventual score was Trinity Road 14 Cathedral 11. However, the home team were all Year 6 pupils, while ours was made up of two Year 6s, one Year 5, six Year 4s and three Year 3s (Francine, Elijah and Teddy F) who all made their debuts. The rest of the squad were William C (captain), William R, Jeremiah, Tavi, Bertie, Anthony, Theo, Rosie and Annabelle.
