Message from the Headteacher

Dear All,

As we start the season of Advent, we have been thinking about preparation of our hearts as well as the outward festivities of the season. So much of this has been about imagining and building understanding of the enormity of the Christmas story. On Tuesday and Wednesday we had some wonderful acting of the roles of Elizabeth, Zachariah, the Angel Gabriel and Mary with everyone involved in one way or another.

The Archbishop of York Award in Year 2 has led to a greater community link with Havencourt, the assisted living residence just up the road from us. Our pupils visit and next week a choir will go to sing to song at Havencourt as is our tradition. This week, twelve members of their community came to see a rehearsal of the Key Stage 1 Nativity. What a lovely experience that was for them and us. Well done KS1 (and Mrs Southgate!)

Parents and staff supported 38 children singing on the first floor of John Lewis on Wednesday which was very well-received. Thank you everyone who sang, supported and attended! We now have some books and two "Snappers". One member of staff who shall be nameless has become so attached they have ordered their own.....

On Thursday, there was an early achievement ceremony as this week on Friday saw the first Nativity dress rehearsal. The newly re-established orchestra/music ensemble played. Hopefully this will inspire more pupils to take up instruments, as this enhances both learning across the curriculum and well-being. Congratulations also to Rose who was runner-up in Vicky Ford's Christmas card competition and received a "Houses of Parliament " bear.

If you haven't yet committed to the school carol service in the Cathedral, please do. This is a school event for the whole of our community to come together with parents and siblings. Starting at 6.30pm on Monday 18th December, it will last about 45-50 minutes. It is one of the special aspects of being a member of The Cathedral School, that we belong to, are supported by and are able to come together in The Cathedral.

Kind regards

Linda Wiskin
